

Archdale-Trinity Chamber of Commerce
*Bert Lance-Stone Lifetime Achievement Award

Deadline to submit a nomination is Friday, December 8, 2017.

Bert Lance-Stone Lifetime Achievement Award

This special award for service is presented on occasion to individuals who have demonstrated a lifetime of exceptional public service and volunteerism in the community in multiple capacities with different organizations.

This special honor is only awarded when a nominee's consistent volunteerism and service have had a profound impact and whose leadership and/or philanthropic endeavors have improved the quality of life of Archdale-Trinity citizens.

Please submit your nominee on the reverse page

_____ (2018)

Bert Lance-Stone is creating a legacy of service to her community. A native of South Carolina who attended Lander University, she is retired from the Federal Government after 30 years of service. In 2000, she became Mayor of the City of Archdale and continues to serve in that capacity. Her involvement with her community extends to many areas of public life: Randolph County Partnership for Children, Randolph County Economic Development Corporation, Piedmont Triad Regional Council and the Archdale-Trinity Chamber of Commerce, to name a few. The Asheboro/Randolph Chamber of Commerce presented the 2015 Athena Award to her and she was recognized as the Randolph County Woman of the Year in 2003.

Nominator: _____

In a few sentences, explain why this person should receive the Lifetime Achievement Award.
